& 2/26/20

With the following corrections in "quotes" to the regular meeting of February 26, 2020:

- Page 6: It is noted although there is no cost for two of the Police trainings, there is a cost of wages for officers attending all trainings "and shift replacement wages."
- Page 7: This person did not accept the offer due to the way she was previously treated "in that office."
- Page 9: separate " • Currently the City is included in the Shared Services, with funds for Human Resources trainings programs through the EPA and grant writing assistance funds."
- Page 3: Correct the motion seconded by Flanigan, who was absent.

Under Communications from the Mayor and Council:

COMMUNICATIONS/MYR

- Mayor Smith stated that Toni Evans, Cattaraugus County Youth Bureau Director, the Seneca Nation Marshalls and Salamanca City School Resource Officers complimented the City on Grant Writer Brundage and they praised her work in the City. They also noted the City is ahead of other communities.
- Council Member Hill stated that he attended the Southern Tier's Got Talent show held at the Ray Evans Seneca Theater. He noted it was very interesting and he was impressed. He wished more would attend and was glad to see the Theater used for events.

- Council Member Magiera stated she attended the Community Forum at the Theater, hosted by students from Cornell University. She noted that there were some negative individuals, however she expressed that the City, School and Seneca Nation are working well together. There was a good article in the Salamanca Press. The group plans to come back to present ideas for the Main Street area on May 5, 2020. It was also noted the new City Historian attended the forum and provided a tour of the Historical Society Museum to the students and staff.
